

SAVE THE DATE!

and join us for
Asset Based Community Development (ABCD)
Training Seminar with Mike Green

May 18 – 19, 2011 in Flagstaff! (location to follow)

*Mobilizing the gifts of people, organizations and communities.
Powerful people and effective programs working together.*

Join us for an engaging and interactive learning event with Mike Green. This training opportunity will focus on Asset Based Community Development (ABCD) principles and applying them to mobilizing people, organizations and communities. This training event is a learning experience that familiarizes participants with the basic concepts of Asset Based Community Development, teaches tools to put them into practice and provides participants opportunities to develop their skills in using the tools to improve programs and the effectiveness of their non-profit organization, collaborative or local agency.

Participants in training will:

- Learn the fundamentals and practices of taking ABCD community building and organizing into action
- Learn how to engage institutions with their communities and vice versa
- Learn methods to tap into the unique power of individuals with gifts and their voluntary associations
- Practice how to build more community engagement and involvement
- Learn approaches to sustain community organizations and leaders
- Gain ideas for building successful agency resident/client partnerships
- Find and mobilize their organizational assets to work together for stronger projects and programs
- Learn practical ways of social network organizing to develop more connected local communities where relationships among people grow
- Work on real-life situations and develop action plans to take home
- Learn ways to meaningfully include people who are traditionally excluded

Registration is only $25.00 per person for this two-day training. The cost includes lunch on both days. To reserve your space in this training, please send a check (payable to Coconino County Community Services) with your name, organization and title, address, phone, fax and email along with any special dietary considerations to:
